Back in the USSR: Rock and Roll and Russian Too!

An all Russian first half featuring Tchaikovsky Serenade in C. A second half salute to Rock and Roll in the New Violin Tradition. Including the iconic music of Jimi Hendrix, Led Zepellin, the Beatles & many others. Witness the surprising effect of eight strings on the world of rock and roll music. Sure to bring a smile to your face!

Evening of Song with Lauren Smith, Soprano

Lauren received standing ovations, touring with the Hutchins Consort to Mexico in January 2010, for her songs of Californios & Spain, operatic favorites, and several surprises. This program will feature Lauren singing both classical and popular. Consort selections will include Bartok Music for Strings, Percussion & Celeste, Barber Adagio for Strings & Walton Viola Concerto featuring our treble player as soloist, Christopher Woods.

Another Salute to Vienna

Success with last January's Night in Vienna program motivates another Viennese theme, featuring a bass-baritone Michael Dean this time. This concert will feature new vocal selections, as well as our own unique arrangement of Liszt's ever popular Hungarian Rhapsody. Also, the Premiere of a new arrangement of Mozart / Perquesta Bella Mano.

Gypsy Soul: Romani life & its Origins

Bringing together music and dance from India and the Romani (Gypsy people) of Europe, exploring the intersections of classical dance and music, the relationship of the Kathak dance of Rajasthan to the Flamenco of Spain, and a celebration of "Gypsy Jazz". With expert dancers, demonstrating this progression from Asia to Europe to California. Special guest Flamenco Guitar Master Guillermo Rios, and featuring a new arrangement of Enesco Romanian Rhapsody No.1.

Tango ~ !!

This program will feature special guest, Tango Maestro, Andres Martin & his group, Quatro Para Tango. An authentic exploration of Latin Dance music including Artistic Director, Joe McNalley's arrangement of Piazzola's Libertango, as well as selections by the great Argentinean Master, Astor Piazzola. Also, an original arrangement by our Tenor Violinist, Omar Firestone, Telemann's Grillen Symphony.
